

The Brussels Digest

Your one stop shop for EU financial services

The Brussels Digest supplies a best-in-class suite of tools to track EU developments. Our multinational and multilingual financial services team of 25 professionals gathers high quality, timely information and intelligence. This can be combined with the eyes and ears service of our expert monitoring team. We gather, filter and prioritise information and intelligence for you.

Key information quickly and comprehensively

Information overload is a major problem for everyone tracking financial services regulation today. We make it easy for you to have at your fingertips the information that you need.

The service is designed and managed by the best specialists in this sector, enabling us to supply the key information quickly and comprehensively. Our advisory business is built on high quality information and intelligence, so we use these tools every day in our work. We invite you to share them with us.

A menu of time-saving products and services

Our offer aims higher than a typical monitoring and tracking service. The quality of our service is shaped by our day to day familiarity with the issues, as well as the people and institutions where changes in the rules for the financial industry are initiated, decided, and implemented.

The result is a menu of time-saving products and services which are unique and add value at all levels of requirement.

Our suite of tools

We offer a full range of services from basic quality monitoring to sophisticated analysis:

Monthly Financial Services Newsletter: Monthly overview of EU Financial Services agenda, with an MEP interview

Daily News: Our team supplies a daily selection of key developments in headline form, with links to documents, speeches, legislative texts and key media reports. This covers all the EU institutions and supervisory bodies and other relevant agencies and international bodies such as IOSCO, Basel Committee, FSB, IASB, etc.

Issue Management Handbook: Provides key timelines and process steps on active legislation (currently 46 items) and contact details for the relevant responsible officials. A treasure trove of continuously updated information for following and intervening on specific issues or staying abreast of events generally.

Weekly Consultations update: A database of public consultations, covering the EU institutions and EU and Member State supervisory bodies, with opening and closing dates, brief description, and links.

Weekly Planner: A look forward to the agenda of the coming week of all the EU institutions and supervisory bodies and other relevant agencies and international bodies.

EU Presidency Reports: Published at the start of each 6-month Council Presidency includes analysis of the political context, the Presidency Priorities, key financial services measures, the organization of the Presidency, Council agendas and timelines, and key contact information.

Briefing Reports/Notes: A rounded and well-informed analysis of important developments and complex issues – ranging from the Accession of Croatia, a FSB consultation paper, the French elections, implementation of Basel III, the adoption of a landmark piece of legislation, or a round-up analysis of third country provisions in EU legislation. Minimum of 4 per year, often more. Prepared by senior experts.

Weekly Executive Report: Written by our sector specific specialists, it provides a review of current legislative and regulatory developments and sets out next steps. It also covers important people movements within the EU institutions. One of our most highly valued products for the time-saving and comprehensive analysis and insight supplied.

Real Time Alerts: on key developments on policy and legislation including summary, analysis, outlook and next steps. A core tool for keeping abreast of events in EP, Council and Commission.

Helpline Service/Ad hoc research: Want to check which member states have signed up for FTT and which are undecided? How that complex comitology process works between Commission and Member States? What the deadline is for response to a consultation, or legislative amendments in Parliament? Whether there is a blocking minority in Council on your issue? What is the purpose of a particular legislative text? Or which official or politician is responsible for your issue? Our expert team can answer questions promptly, just a phone call or an email away.

Rolling Agenda: A compendium of information for the next 6 months on meetings and events in the main EU institutions and other events and meetings relevant to financial services.
